When He had finished washing their feet, He put on His clothes and returned to His place. “Do you understand what I have done for you?” He asked them. “You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord’,” and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another’s feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

John 13:12-15

Friends, once again, thank you for your generosity, kindness, prayers, and for embodying the true spirit of Christ. Without your support and prayers, we would not have reached these children for the Kingdom of God. For that I say big THANK YOU!!!

We look forward to continuing this journey, and making a lasting difference in the lives of these children for the kingdom of Christ.

Hearts For Ghana Mission

This Easter, we had the joy and blessing to celebrate our Lord's resurrection with children in remote villages, slums and those living on the streets. We went from village to village. Together, we shared the life-changing story of Jesus' death and resurrection—the ultimate act of love and redemption.

Ministering the word in a remote village

... so, He got up from the meal, took off His outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around His waist. After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around Him.

John 13:3-5

Through this verse, we felt the Lord leading us to do the same thing with the children.

Hearts For Ghana Mission

We shared the powerful message of the Gospel—Jesus' death and resurrection—and told everyone we encountered of the hope and love found in Christ.

Just as Jesus washed the feet of His disciples, we humbled ourselves to wash the feet of these often forgotten, unreachable, and untouchable children. Sharing the Word with them individually and collectively. In all, we served over 1,200 children. I wish you could have been here with us.

From village to village, our HFGM Team ministered, prayed and washed the feet of children.

Each child received a brand-new pair of sandals, symbolizing a fresh start and new beginning. This became an unforgettable symbol of hope, dignity and the love of Christ. These children had never felt anything like this before. It was a beautiful, humble, experience filled with grace, compassion,
